FOOD & BEVERAGE OPERATIONS | Strong foundations. Consistent execution.

Operations Recovery

Diagnostic plus a 90-day turnaround plan

For restaurants and hotel F&B programs missing their targets. A structured on-site diagnostic, then a clear 90-day plan with weekly accountability.

THE PROBLEM

Underperformance has a cause you can find

When sales are flat and costs are up, owners often try a new menu or a new marketing push. Usually the real issue is operational: the labor model, the purchasing, the service standard, or the leadership team.

A good diagnostic separates symptoms from causes, then fixes the few things that move the numbers most.

Find the cause, fix the few things that matter most, and track them every week.

THE METHOD

How the work runs

Recovery runs in three tight phases.

PHASE 01

Diagnose

Five to seven days on-site: P&L variance, labor, purchasing, service, and team.

PHASE 02

Plan

A written 90-day turnaround plan with owners, targets, and weekly milestones.

PHASE 03

Execute

Weekly accountability, retraining, and course corrections until results hold.

20 YEARS ON THE FLOOR

20

years in hospitality

1,800

SERVICES

What is included

01 Operations Diagnostic

Five to seven days on-site across every shift and department.

02 P&L Deep Dive

Variance analysis on sales, prime cost, and controllables.

03 Labor Model Reset

Scheduling rebuilt around demand and productivity.

04 Service Standard Reset

Steps of service rewritten and retrained with the team.

05 Cost Structure Audit

Purchasing, waste, and vendor pricing reviewed with a reduction plan.

06 Revenue Opportunities

Menu mix, check average, and event or off-premise revenue reviewed.

WHAT I LOOK FOR

What the diagnostic covers

Sales and guest experience

Covers, check average, reviews, and what guests actually experience.

Labor

Hours against covers, overtime, and scheduling habits.

Purchasing and waste

Vendor pricing, order guides, pars, and waste.

Leadership

Who runs each shift and how decisions get made.

Systems and controls

Cash, comps, voids, inventory counts, and reporting.

You get a clear, prioritized list. Some fixes take a week, some take the full 90 days.
